ADVANT Beiten Advises Banyan Software on the Acquisition of tec4U-Solutions GmbH

Berlin/Freiburg, 1 July 2026 - The international law firm ADVANT Beiten has provided comprehensive legal advice to Banyan Software on its acquisition of tec4U-Solutions GmbH.

Founded in 2013 and headquartered in Saarbrücken, Germany, tec4U-Solutions GmbH develops software solutions and data services for material and product compliance management. Through its "DataCross" platform, the company supports manufacturers, distributors and importers in complying with international regulatory requirements, including REACH, PFAS and the EU Deforestation Regulation (EUDR).

Banyan Software is a global acquirer of specialized software businesses pursuing a long-term buy-and-hold strategy. With the acquisition, the company further strengthens its presence in the European vertical market software sector. tec4U-Solutions GmbH will continue to operate independently from its Saarbrücken headquarters.

ADVANT Beiten regularly advises Banyan Software on acquisitions in the German-speaking region and continues to support the company in executing its long-term growth strategy. This latest mandate highlights the firm's extensive expertise in cross-border M&A transactions in the technology sector and its longstanding experience in advising international software and technology companies.

Advisors to Banyan Software:

ADVANT Beiten: Christian Burmeister (Berlin and Freiburg, lead, Corporate/M&A), Damien Heinrich (Freiburg, Corporate/M&A), Mathias Zimmer-Goertz, Christian Döpke (both Düsseldorf, IP/IT), Michael Riedel (Berlin, Employment Law).
