Real Estate Dusseldorf: ADVANT Beiten Wins Team of Four Including Partner Dr Philipp Pröbsting from PWC Legal

Dusseldorf, 19 December 2024 - The international commercial law firm ADVANT Beiten continues to expand its Real Estate practice and sector group by winning Dr Philipp Pröbsting from PWC Legal as equity partner. Philipp Pröbsting joins together with his team Ansgar Messow, LL.M. (Local Partner), Julian Gruß (Salary Partner) and Associate Rebecca Stielow as well as two further employees. The team will join ADVANT Beiten's Dusseldorf office on 1 January 2025.

Dr Philipp Pröbsting is a licensed building and architects' law specialist and, together with his team, specialises in advising on major projects in the fields of building construction, infrastructure and industry construction (nationally and internationally). He has been advising on project developments (including land issues and asset management), complex industrial construction projects and infrastructure measures for more than 16 years.

The team is committed to an integrated and comprehensive advisory approach with interdisciplinary teams that think through and support the project from the early initiation phase to the operational or production phase. The team provides support in the initiation of projects, contracts and legal project management. Its clients include companies from the industrial sector, energy suppliers, construction companies and the public sector.

"With Dr Philipp Pröbsting's team, we are significantly strengthening our expertise in the real estate and construction sector and further expanding important interfaces, among others the public sector and regulated industries," comments Dr Guido Krüger, Managing Partner of ADVANT Beiten, adding: "We are delighted to have gained an excellent expert with proven industry expertise in Philipp Pröbsting."

Dr Philipp Pröbsting comments: "We are very much looking forward to the new challenges at ADVANT Beiten. We are convinced that our advisory approach fits perfectly with the existing competencies, structures and advisors and that together we will boost the Real Estate practice and sector group in Dusseldorf, throughout Germany and internationally."

ADVANT Beiten's Real Estate team of more than 50 advises on all planning and construction law issues across all offices. Clients include federal, state and local authorities, private investors and property developers, building owners and architects as well as banks and investment companies in all phases of their projects. The team combines real estate core competencies with broad legal, commercial and tax law expertise.
