

Application
for Including Modern Technologies in the List of Types of Technologies Recognized as Modern Technologies, Whose Development and Implementation or Whose Implementation is Being Carried Out in accordance with a Special Investment Contract

I. Information on the Applicant

Description of the information	Contents
1. Full name of the applicant
2. OGRN, INN, KPP
3. Location of the applicant
4. Postal address of the applicant
5. Official website of the applicant
6. Contact person of the applicant (surname, first name, patronymic, email address, telephone number)
7. Main types of economic activity to be carried out by the applicant

II. Information on the technology

Description of the modern technology	Name of the industrial product, whose mass production should be set up as a result of the development and implementation or the implementation of a corresponding type of modern technology, and also the product code in accordance with the Russian National Classification of Products by Type of Economic Activity (OKPD 2)	Requirements on the main technical characteristics (attributes) of the industrial product, whose mass production should be set up as a result of the development and implementation, or the implementation of a corresponding type of modern technology, and/or requirements on the modern technology	Timeframe on the expiry of which the modern technology included in the list of technologies recognized as modern technologies, whose development and implementation or whose implementation is being carried out in accordance with a special investment contract, loses relevance	Substantiation of the expedience of the adoption of a decision by the Government of the Russian Federation as to whether it is mandatory or not that a special investment contract include the security of the investor stipulated by Clause 5, Part 5 of Article 18.2 of Federal Law "On Industrial Policy in the Russian Federation"	Group indicated in Clause 5 of the Rules for Creating and Updating the List of Types of Technologies, Recognized as Modern Technologies for the Purpose of Concluding Special Investment Contracts	Information on whether or not to classify a technology as a scientific and technical development priority of the Russian Federation, established in accordance with Decree No. 642 of the President of the Russian Federation dated 1 December 2016 "On the Scientific and Technical Development Strategy of the Russian Federation"	Information on the potential development of modern technology

III. Information for the evaluation of a technology

Description of the technology

Contents

1. Market potential, competitiveness of the industrial product at a global level, whose mass production should be set up as a result of the development and implementation or the implementation of a corresponding modern technology
2. Possible creation for the application of the technology of a production facility that complies with modern production practices and standards
3. Decrease in the adverse environmental impact, the resource efficiency and energy efficiency of the modern technology

Managing Director of the applicant

(signature)

(surname, first name, patronymic (where applicable))

Place for Seal (where applicable)

Date