

BEITEN BURKHARDT Supports Winner of VIR Contest

Dusseldorf/Berlin, 23 June 2016 – Once again, the international law firm BEITEN BURKHARDT supports the winner of the innovation competition Sprungbrett, organised by the association of German online travel industry, Verband Internet Reisebetrieb (VIR), with 15 hours of tax and legal advice.

In an exciting neck-and-neck race between the finalists the online platform get a camp took a lead and is the winner of this year's contest. The online platform allows booking of camping sites in Germany. It offers easy seeking, comparing and booking of sites. With its victory the start-up which is one of BEITEN BURKHARDT's clients secured an attractive prize package in a total value of EUR 35,000.

VIR is an association set up to represent the interests of German online travel portals. It creates binding quality standards ensuring that consumers who use a website of the member portals obtain reliable, competent and customer-friendly advice, assistance and service.

Prize-winner Fabian Gartmann from get a camp with all sponsors of the prize package.